Walter B. Arnold Jr.

Youth Hall of Fame Awards

One of the traits of visionaries is that they have an eternally youthful outlook on life and Walter B. Arnold Jr. was no exception. Born on October 2, 1914, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, he was 85 years young when he died in Miami on May 9, 2000. For the greater part of his adult life, Mr. Arnold championed youth. He admired the creativity, the dreams and the accomplishments of young men and women still in school. He wanted to recognize and reward these talented young people. Mr. Arnold was graduated from the University of Tennessee with a degree in Business Administration. His career brought him to Miami where he worked 62 years with Aetna Life Insurance. His community service brought him to the Miami-Dade County Fair & Exposition, known for many years as the Youth Fair.

He joined the Fair's Board of Directors in 1959 and served on it until his death – an amazing 41 years of voluntary service to one organization. During this time, Mr. Arnold was Fair President for five years and also served as secretary, treasurer and general manager. He became Miami-Dade County's first resident to be elected president of the Florida Federation of Fairs. In 1989, the State Federation named him Fair Person of the Year. He was recognized throughout Florida for helping building the state's fair industry.

Mr. Arnold lived by his philosophy: "We were born into this world without paying for a whole lot of things. Our payment can be what we do for other people". His entire life was devoted to youth programs, community service and the celebration and recognition of youth achievers.

His ongoing journey to build an ever-improving Miami-Dade County Fair ended before he could fulfill his ultimate dream: the creation of a Youth Hall of Fame. To recognize Mr. Arnold's outstanding contributions, visions and standards of excellence, and to help this rare individual accomplish his dream – the Miami-Dade County Fair & Exposition Board of Directors officially established the Walter B. Arnold Jr., Youth Hall of Fame by resolution on May 8, 2000.

Procedures:

1. The entry form must be typewritten using a 12 point font.
2. School and/or community service must be documented on the service log provided. Format and headings may not be changed or altered.
3. You are allowed 5 pages of support documents (i.e., letters, awards, and news clippings) in addition to the application form.
4. Provide original photographs of you performing volunteer activities. All photographs submitted with your application will become the property of the Miami-Dade County Fair & Exposition. These photos may be used for publication, the Youth Wall of Fame, and a presentation during the awards program. No scanned or photocopies will be accepted. You may submit photos on disk.
5. Two letters of recommendation must be included in the application: one letter from your school (i.e. principal or head administrator, guidance counselor, or teacher) and one letter from the person who oversaw, or directed your major service project.
6. Submit six copies of the application form; the typed original and five photocopies. Provide one original 2 x 3 color headshot photograph of yourself. No scanned or photocopies will be accepted.
7. All Walter B. Arnold Jr., Youth Hall of Fame Award applications must be submitted to the designated person at your school. One school finalist is to be submitted by your school coordinator by Tuesday, December 18, 2007 to Ms. Diana Venturini, 1450 NE 2nd Avenue, Room 776, Miami, FL 33132 (School Mail #9619). For further information, please send an e-mail to: info@youthhalloffame.org.
8. Projects that have finalized in previous years for their Regional Center may not be re-entered.
